

YEAR ONE OF UNDERGRADUATE

1

- Maintain a high GPA and begin to take prerequisite courses
- Join a pre-med or health care organization
- Form relationships with healthcare professionals
- Form strong study habits

YEAR TWO OF UNDERGRADUATE

2

- Begin to study for the MCAT
- Keep your GPA high
- Continue to participate in a pre-med or healthcare organization
- Strengthen your relationships with healthcare professionals

YEAR THREE OF UNDERGRADUATE

3

- Familiarize yourself with the application process
- Meet with your pre-health advisor
- Create a list of possible medical schools
- Take the MCAT
- Begin to write your personal statement
- Continue to participate in extracurricular activities and gain hands-on medical experience
- Send in your application as soon as possible

YEAR FOUR OF UNDERGRADUATE

4

- Fill out and send back your secondaries
- Interview session is from September to February
- Decide where you want to go to medical school by April 30
- Fill out the FAFSA
- Thank everyone who helped you

KEY APPLICATION DATES

Beginning of May: TMDSAS and AMCAS open

End of May/June: AMCAS starts to accept applications

Late June: AMCAS sends processed applications to medical schools

August: Early Decision deadline for TMDSAS and AMCAS

October: Submission deadline for application to any medical programs through TMDSAS